February 8th Live Auction Opportunity Private Kohler River Wildlife Target & Clay Shoot and Lunch for Eight

This 500-acre private wilderness preserve is a Sportsman's dream destination. Spend the afternoon sharpening your shooting skills with a lesson from an IDPA safety officer and a round of clay shooting.

Prior to your clay shoot your party of eight will dine in River Wildlife's exclusive Lodge Restaurant, a private, rustic log cabin bordering a lush hardwood forest that is not open to the general public. The six cozy and inviting dining areas include three intimate lofts that feature an eclectic mix of primitive wood furnishings, earthenware place settings and fresh wildflowers.

The imaginative, seasonal menu features fresh, seasonal Midwestern fare, showcasing ingredients such as walleye. Service is warm and gracious yet professional in its attention to detail and anticipation of guests' needs.
